

Match against SIR

2006-10-22 22:15:35 by XenoMorpH

We were ready..... cause it was boring to wait, we split the team, and fight against each other..
Finally there was someone from SIR, we ask if they are ready to play..

He said yah..

So we regroup the team, and wait.... till about 25 min over match-time

So no SIR action, no connecting to the server from SIR..

No cancel from the SIR side, so we claim this one as a win..

If they canceled on time there where no probs, but 25 min wait is way over the limit! Shame it ends this way
